

Nevertheless
Nonetheless
Notwithstanding However
Albeit

1. Nevertheless

In spite of

- She was tired; nevertheless, she finished her work on time.
- The weather forecast predicted rain for the picnic, but they decided to go, nevertheless.
- John was a picky eater, but he tried the exotic dish, and, nevertheless, he enjoyed it.

2. Nonetheless

In spite of

- The weather was gloomy; nonetheless, we decided to go for a walk.
- She was tired; nonetheless, she continued to work on her assignment.
- The project faced numerous obstacles, but they pushed on nonetheless.

3. Notwithstanding

In spite of

- Notwithstanding the rain, they decided to have a picnic.
- She continued working, notwithstanding her exhaustion.
- Notwithstanding the challenges, the project was a success.

4. However

In spite of, but

- She wanted to go to the party; however, she had too much work to finish.
- The restaurant was expensive; however, the food was exceptional.
- He wasn't feeling well; however, he still managed to complete the project.

5. Albeit

In spite of, although

- She agreed to go, albeit reluctantly.
- The restaurant was expensive, albeit very popular.
- Albeit it was late, he called to apologize.

SHARE

&

SUBSCRIBE