

SYMPATHY

EMPATHY

APATHY

1

SYMPATHY

Refers to feelings of pity and sorrow for someone else's misfortune or suffering.

Example 1: After the earthquake, people around the world expressed sympathy for the affected people.

Example 2: Despite her own difficulties, Maria always had sympathy for others going through tough times.

Example 3: She extended her help out of sympathy.

2

EMPATHY

Is the ability to understand and share the feelings of another person

Example 1: Showing empathy towards others can strengthen relationships.

Example 2: Expressing empathy can make someone feel understood and supported.

Example 3: she showed empathy by acknowledging her friend's feelings.

3

APATHY

A lack of interest, emotional response or indifference towards something.

Example 1: Our apathy towards pollution and global warming is alarming.

Example 2: Despite the fact that his wife needed his care, he showed apathy.

Example 3: His apathy towards his health led to worsening medical conditions.

SHARE

&

SUBSCRIBE